HEAR MY VOICE A Writers' Circle

For people from refugee communities

HEAR MY VOICE

A writers' circle for people from refugee communities

“Hear My Voice” is a fun and exciting writers’ circle for you

- ❖ to express your ideas
- ❖ to tell your stories
- ❖ to improve your English reading and writing skills with a language support tutor

“Hear My Voice” is a project for people who are interested in joining a writers’ circle in order to:

- ❖ express themselves in creative writing and reading groups
- ❖ share their work at events and through publications
- ❖ participate in “Hot topic debates”
- ❖ public presentations
- ❖ raise awareness of daily realities of life of asylum-seekers and refugees

Writing

is the best way to talk without being interrupted.

Jules Renard

To have a voice one must be both willing and able to speak up. Limited English and lack of confidence often prevent people from even trying to make their voices heard.

“Hear My Voice” is open to everyone (priority to people from refugee communities).

The writers’ group meets monthly and if you wish to find out about our next meeting please contact REAP.
