

REAP

Refugees in Effective
and Active Partnership

To book a place please
e-mail olesya@reap.org.uk
or ring 01895 441530

Key House, 106 High Street, Yiewsley UB7 7BQ www.reap.org.uk

Working With Asylum-Seekers and Refugees in Hillingdon

A series of intensive workshops, tailored materials and backup for voluntary and statutory sector professionals whose jobs involve working with asylum-seekers, refugees and newly arrived communities in the southern wards of Hillingdon Borough.

Follow up workshop for Hillingdon professionals who work with refugee children and unaccompanied children seeking asylum

A discussion among professionals who work with refugee children to share knowledge and to expand on the themes identified on 8 October 2009.

- Exchange information about your work and projects;
- Identify opportunities for cooperative action across Hillingdon.

Friday 29th January 2010 1:30 - 4:30 pm

(1pm for sandwiches and refreshments)

Key House, 106 High Street, Yiewsley UB7 7BQ

REAP

Refugees in Effective
and Active Partnership

To book a place please
e-mail olesya@reap.org.uk
or ring 01895 441530

Key House, 106 High Street, Yiewsley UB7 7BQ www.reap.org.uk

Working With Asylum-Seekers and Refugees in Hillingdon

A series of intensive workshops, tailored materials and backup for voluntary and statutory sector professionals whose jobs involve working with asylum-seekers, refugees and newly arrived communities in the southern wards of Hillingdon Borough.

Follow up workshop for Hillingdon professionals who work with refugee children and unaccompanied children seeking asylum

A discussion among professionals who work with refugee children to share knowledge and to expand on the themes identified on 8 October 2009.

- Exchange information about your work and projects;*
- Identify opportunities for cooperative action across Hillingdon.*

Friday 29th January 2010 1:30 - 4:30 pm

(1pm for sandwiches and refreshments)

Key House, 106 High Street, Yiewsley UB7 7BQ

